GO AND REGISTER HOW TO SECURE A GOOD OFFICER A card appeared yesterday in the public prints calling for a Democratic contion. The call is signed by T. W. O'Don nell, A. H. Douglass, Thomas Moffatt, W. H. Passmore, Henry T. Hulbert, E. A. Cole, Dr. P. M. Dickenson and by several discharged policemen-all of them citizen of personal worth and influence. These are the leaders and exponents of the Domocracy of Memphis, and these gentlemen have undertaken the task of organizing a Democratic convention in this and General Battle, personally the most popular gentleman in the city, became the candidate of the party. The people wanted a mayor and were not, as citizens and taxpayers of Nashville, very deeply concerned in matters of particanship, and thus a distinguished soldier was besten by a man simply on the score of fitness for office. Such is the predominant French communists in our eyes; the efieling, at this hour, of the people of fore, it is well to know what communists Memphis. They want a mayor.
